2.3. Where no Objection Notice

If the Indemnifying Party does not serve an Objection Notice within the Objection Period, the Indemnifying Party shall be conclusively deemed to have agreed to the matters set forth in the Indemnification Notice issued by the Purchaser and must perform all the necessary actions (including the payment of money to the Purchaser) so as to make full indemnification of the Loss stated in the Indemnification Notice to the Purchaser:

- (a) within a further 10 Business Days from expiry of the Objection Period; or
- (b) if the Loss described in the Indemnification Notice has not or will not actually be incurred or crystallise before that time, on no less than 10 Business Days' notice from the Purchaser, provided always that such date for payment may not be earlier than the date on which such Loss is actually incurred or otherwise crystallises.

2.4. Where Dispute arises

- (a) If the Indemnifying Party serves an Objection Notice, then a Dispute will be deemed to have arisen between the Indemnifying Party and the Purchaser, to which the provisions of Clause 9 of the Agreement will apply.
- (b) In the event that, as a result of the procedures set out in Clause 9 of the Agreement (which must have regard to the limitations in this Schedule), an arbitral award or determination requires the Indemnifying Party to pay any amount to the Purchaser on account of an Indemnity Claim, the Indemnifying Party must pay or procure payment of such amount to the Purchaser within 10 Business Days' of the arbitral award or determination being made, or such other date as specified in the arbitral award or determination or as may otherwise be agreed by the parties to the Dispute.

2.5. Delays:

Any delay in any Indemnification Notice or Third Party Claim Notice given by the Purchaser does not relieve the Indemnifying Party of or alter its obligations in relation to any Indemnity Claim, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced by such delay.

3. THIRD PARTY CLAIMS

- 3.1. In the event that the Purchaser receives notice of any claim (a "Third Party Claim") by any Person ("Third Party") which the Purchaser reasonably believes may give rise to an Indemnity Claim against the Indemnifying Party, the Purchaser must (without limitation to any other provisions of this Schedule):

- (a) give notice in writing of the Third Party Claim to the Indemnifying Party within 10 Business Days of so becoming aware of the Third Party Claim ("Third Party Claim Notice");
- (b) consult with the Indemnifying Party with respect to the Third Party Claim;
- (c) if requested to do so by the Indemnifying Party provide and use all reasonable endeavours to provide to the Indemnifying Party and its legal advisers reasonable access to information, documents and records within the power or control of the Purchaser for the purposes of investigating the Third Party Claim and enabling the Indemnifying Party to take any action referred to in this paragraph;
- (d) take action and institute proceedings as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request or require in writing to:
 - (i) avoid, dispute, resist, appeal, compromise, defend, remedy or mitigate the Third Party Claim or enforce against the Third Party (other than the Indemnifying Party) the rights of the Purchaser in relation to the Third Party Claim; and
 - (ii) use legal advisers nominated by the Indemnifying Party in connection with any proceedings related to the Third Party Claim (other than against the Indemnifying Party).

3.2. The Party who assumes defence of Third Party Claim shall not admit liability in respect of, or compromise or settle, the matter without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party or the Purchaser, as the case may be (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).

3.3. If the Purchaser is required to deposit any sums of money or pay any other costs or fees in relation to any Third Party Claim ("Indemnity Costs"), then the Indemnity Costs will be paid by the relevant Indemnifying Party and the Purchaser shall not be required to go out-of-pocket at any time. In the event any Indemnity Costs are refunded to the Purchaser, then the Purchaser shall forthwith but in no event later than 10 (ten) Business Days of receipt of such Indemnity Costs, refund the Indemnity Costs (along with interest, if any, received by the Purchaser on the Indemnity Costs) to the relevant Indemnifying Party.

4. INDEMNITY PAYMENTS

4.1. Any indemnity payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be made by the Indemnifying Parties to the Purchaser in full, without any set off, counterclaim, restriction or condition and without any deduction or withholding (save as may be required by law or as otherwise agreed in this Agreement or in writing between the Parties).

4.2. Any indemnity payments made by the Indemnifying Parties pursuant to this Agreement shall be effected by crediting for same day value the account specified by the Purchaser on behalf of the party entitled to the payment (reasonably in advance and in sufficient detail to enable payment by electronic transfer to be effected) on or before the due date for payment.

5. LIMITATIONS

- 5.1 An Indemnifying Party shall not be liable in respect of an Indemnity Claim if and to the extent the relevant Loss would not have arisen but for:
- (a) a change in applicable Law or a change in the interpretation of applicable Law (whether relating to Tax, the rate of Tax or otherwise) or any amendment to or the withdrawal of any practice previously published by a Governmental Authority, in either case occurring after the Agreement Date, whether or not that change, amendment or withdrawal purports to be effective retrospectively in whole or in part; or
 - (b) any act or omission of the Indemnifying Party on or before the Agreement Date carried out at the written request of the Purchaser, or any act or omission of the Purchaser after the Agreement Date, except to the extent such act or omission is necessary to comply with applicable Law.
- 5.2 The Indemnifying Parties shall not be liable for any indirect, remote, consequential, exemplary or punitive damages, including lost profits, loss of business or goodwill.
- 5.3 The Purchaser shall take all reasonable steps and provide all reasonable assistance to avoid or mitigate any Losses which are subject matter of an Indemnity Claim.
- 5.4 The Seller shall not be liable to the Purchaser for any claims arising out of a breach of any of the Company Warranties and/or any obligations of the Company under this Agreement. The Company shall not be liable to the Purchaser for any claims arising out of a breach of any of the Seller Warranties and/or any obligations of the Seller under this Agreement.
- 5.5 Notwithstanding anything contained in the Agreement to the contrary:
- (a) the aggregate maximum liability of the Seller for all Tax Claims shall not exceed the INR amount equivalent to 3 (three) times the amount of capital gains Tax arising out of the sale of the Purchase Shares by the Seller to the Purchaser; and
 - (b) the Seller shall be liable to indemnify the Purchaser in relation to any Tax Claim only before the expiry of 7 (seven) years from the Agreement Date; provided that if a notice which gives rise to a Tax Claim is received by the Purchaser from any Governmental Authority under the IT Act and an Indemnity Claim basis such notice from the Governmental Authority is made by the Purchaser prior to the expiry of 7 (seven) years from the Agreement Date, then the obligation of the Seller to indemnify the Purchaser for the relevant Tax Claim shall terminate in respect of such proceedings only upon full and final termination of all proceedings in this regard.
- 5.6 The Purchaser shall not be entitled to make any Indemnity Claim to the extent that the claim would allow the Purchaser to claim an amount more than once in respect of the same subject matter (a "Double Claim"). If the Purchaser does recover an amount from an Indemnifying Party which is pursuant to a Double Claim, it shall return an amount equal to the excess to such Indemnifying Party.
- 5.7 To the extent that an Indemnity Claim is for Loss which is based upon a contingent liability, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to make a payment to the Purchaser in respect of such Loss unless and until such time as the contingent liability becomes actual Loss.

- 5.8 Where the Indemnifying Party has made a payment to the Purchaser in relation to any Indemnity Claim and the Purchaser recovers (whether by insurance, payment, discount, credit relief or otherwise) from a third party a sum which indemnifies or compensates the Purchaser (in whole or in part) in respect of the Loss which is the subject of such Indemnity Claim, the Purchaser shall pay to such Indemnifying Party as soon as practicable after receipt of such an amount, the amount recovered from the third party, less (i) in the event of a partial discharge, any outstanding indemnity amount due and payable but not received from the Indemnifying Party; and (ii) any Taxes and costs of such recovery from a third party subject to the Purchaser providing the Indemnifying Party supporting documents with respect to such Taxes and costs, if available or in the absence of such documents, providing an undertaking that it has disclosed true and complete information regarding the amount recovered from the third party and Taxes and costs of recovery from a third party.
- 5.9 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated in this Agreement, the limitations set forth in paragraph 5 of this Schedule 5 shall not apply for a Loss attributable to (i) any fraud with respect to any Company Warranty, and (ii) any fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct by the Seller.
