Bikaji Foods International Limited Grieves the Loss of Chairman Shri Shiv Ratan Agarwal

Bikaner, April 23, 2026: Bikaji Foods International Limited, India's third largest ethnic snacks Company and the second fastest-growing player in the organized snacks market, deeply mourns the demise of its Promoter, Chairman and Whole-Time Director - Shri Shiv Ratan Agarwal.

A visionary entrepreneur and founder, Shri Shiv Ratan Agarwal was instrumental in shaping the Company's journey from its origins in Bikaner into a globally recognized packaged food enterprise. With over five decades of experience in the ethnic snacks and sweets industry, he built a strong foundation rooted in innovation, quality and deep consumer understanding.

Under his leadership, Bikaji evolved into one of India's leading Fast-Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG) brands, with a growing international footprint and a diverse portfolio of products. His visionary approach, including the adoption of advanced manufacturing technologies and expansion into global markets played a defining role in the Company's sustained growth.

He was widely respected not only for his business acumen, but also for his humility, resilience and unwavering commitment to excellence. His entrepreneurial journey from building a venture from the ground up to leading a publicly listed organization remains a source of inspiration across the industry.

The Board of Directors, management and employees of the organization express their deepest condolences to his family and loved ones. His passing marks the loss of a pioneering industry leader, whose legacy will continue to guide the Company's future.

The Company remains committed to carrying forward his vision and values, as it continues its journey of growth and innovation.
